OVERLOOKING COMFORTS.

News reports elicited that Hugo Stinnes died and left the largest fortune in Europe. At about the same time a miner, found dead in the slums of San Francisco, had $15,000 sewed in his undershirt. And when you consider the two instances together you can't help wondering just what pleasure a man gets out of hoarding. Any man in Charleroi who is making as little as $15 a week, is happier than Stinnes ever was with his millions, and a man who has friends to smile and speak to is richer than the miser whose lonely body rests in a grave that was never wet by tears.

Prosperity doesn't lie in the possession of money. To the man who regulates his life properly every dollar that is saved stands for some pleasure that he will later on derive from it in his own behalf or that of his family and friends. Just why a man who calls himself a good business man should endure privations and rob himself of luxuries and comforts he really craves for is past understanding—beyond our ken. Possibly in his greed for more dollars he has really forgotten about the comforts they will buy.

The good business man does not watch the future to the neglect of the present; nor does he think so much about today that he makes no provision for tomorrow. The wise man balances his accounts with life each day and keeps an eye and a few dollars for the future. And he knows that there isn't going to be any pockets in his shroud.

"AFTER SIX DAYS"

MAKES BIG HIT

An idea of the immensity of the Cadle Tabernacle's spacious interior may be gained from a comparison with the seating arrangements in Keith's Hippodrome, New York, which has a capacity of 6,000, and the Capitol, New York, with 3,300 capacity.

The June 1 opening of "After Six Days" marks the second-run engagement of the picture in Indianapolis, it having played for three weeks at the English Opera House in the Hoosier capital some time previously.

Indianapolis churches have arranged to cooperate extensively in the sale of tickets. A preliminary advertising campaign, combining for a thorough "circus" of Indianapolis, already has been started and will continue throughout the run.

The deal for the run was effected by Eddie Grossman, of Epic Film Attractions of Chicago, which controls the rights for the territory.

"After Six Days" started another big city run at the Circle Theatre, Cleveland, on Sunday night, May 18. It opened to the biggest gross business registered by any picture at the Circle on Sunday since the house opened.

Max Weiss, who went to Cleveland last week to personally supervise the exploitation campaign preceding the opening, will remain in Cleveland during the current week to further cooperate with Martin Printz, manager of the Circle.

Mr. Weiss supervised the several previous long runs of "After Six Days" in Boston, Richmond, Pittsburgh, Chicago and other important centres. The duration of the engagement at the Circle is indefinite.

THE OFFICE CAT

For the benefit of the ladies who wish to state that the Post Office department does not maintain a separate staff of clerks to handle letters marked "In Haste."

A person shouldn't complain too much about the town he lives in. People may think he is a fizzle.

A lonely Pomona, Calif., peach packed a note in a box of lemons. It was not fruitless. She found the apple of her eye.

Let's see, the "surplus" war material wasn't leased, was it?

"Last evening, sir, I distinctly saw my daughter sitting in your lap. What explanation have you to make?"

"I got here early, sir, before the others."

A flat pocketbook and a flat tire are bad combinations.

Recent agitation for reform at Hollywood is said to have caused the authorities to adopt a new plan. A whistle is blown at 5 a. m. and everyone is supposed to return to his or her bungalow.

A man walked into a shoe store, accompanied by his wife and ten children, and said to the clerk, "I want to get the hull lot of 'em fitted up in shoes."

After two hours of hard work the clerk succeeded in getting each one fitted and was beginning to make out the bill.

"Oh, don't bother about that," said the man. "I don't want to buy the shoes. I just want to get the sizes so's I can order them by mail."

Would you succeed? Toil to transfer the bone from your head to your back.

Still, when a stubborn liz stalls on the tracks and won't start, there's some satisfaction in sitting on the bank and watching it happen.

No woman worries about whether her husband's stenographer is a blonde or a brunette after he begins wearing a fifty-two inch belt and brushing his top hair over his bald spot.

Patience is bitter but its fruits sweet.

Conan Doyle claims dogs and cats will have a place in heaven.

Well, it may be heaven for the dogs but it will be hell for the cats.

Generally a man is pressed by his creditors only after he has squeezed his victims.

650 BARRELS OF BEER POURED INTO THE SEWER

There was a flood of beer down Chartiers creek yesterday. It was the real stuff, the kind of amber fluid that made that city on the western shores of Lake Michigan famous. Quietly and without ceremony, Sheriff Otto Luellen, of the county, under a decree of the court, took charge the last of the week of the Crescent Brewing company plant on Jefferson avenue, Washington, and proceeded to destroy any beer or near beer in that plant. It is estimated that about 650 barrels, worth about $32,500, were run into the sewer at that plant. It had to be poured gradually, as the sewer accommodations could not take care at one time of so big a flow of beer.

The destruction of this brewed liquor is a sequel to the recent raid of this plant by Corporal Cohee, of the state police, assisted by David Creigh, of the county detective force, and the arrest of those in charge at the time, and the confiscation of 22 barrels of what proved by test to be real beer, which was being loaded on railroad cars preparatory to shipment away from Washington.

Following that raid information was made against the corporation and against five employees of the company for violation of the liquor laws. These criminal proceedings have not yet been disposed of. When it was disclosed that this company had been violating the law at this plant in the manufacture of brewed liquors, District Attorney Howard W. Hughes proceeded to take steps to close up the plant and destroy any liquor found within the plant.

The company, however, waived any contest of the proposal to enjoin them and endorsed the agreement and stipulation as drawn up by the district attorney and approved by the court. Last week the company officially authorized its executive officers to sign this agreement and stipulation. This was done the last of the week. This was followed by the court's order.

This order provided that the sheriff should take charge of the plant and destroy any liquors found there. The company was restrained from interfering in any manner with this seizure and destruction. The plant, under this order, is closed down tight for at least a year. It was learned after the raid on the place that since April 7 of this year the company had no right to operate, a permit having been refused by the state prohibition enforcement officer.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear son, William T. Turner, who died two years ago today, May 27.

Today brings back a memory. Of one who was called to rest.

We little thought his death so near. And those who think of him today.

Are those who loved him best. But only those who loved can tell. The pain of not saying the last farewell.

Sadly missed by his mother, father, brother and Yates family.

Card Of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness bestowed during the recent illness and death of our baby.

MRS. BUSH TELLS OTHER WOMEN

How Pains in Side and Dragging Down Feelings Were Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Massena, N. Y.—"I had terrible pains in both my sides and a dragging-down feeling that affected me so that I could hardly walk, and I got run-down. A friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised me to try it and I have taken it with the best results. I do my housework and also some outdoor work on the farm. The Vegetable Compound has given me back my health and I can not praise it enough. I am perfectly willing that you should use these facts if my letter will help other women who still suffer."

Mrs. DELBERT BUSH, R. F. D. 1, Massena, N. Y. "The spirit of helpfulness shown in the letters we are constantly publishing is worthy of notice."

These women know by experience what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do. Your troubles are the same as theirs. Isn't it reasonable to expect the same results?

If you have pains and a dragging-down feeling and are nervous and irritable, profit by Mrs. Bush's experience and give the Compound a trial.

When you feel discouraged, nervous, tired, worried or dependent it is a sure sign you need MOTT'S NERVE-PILLS.

amusement ban prohibiting dancing, horse racing, and any questionable or misleading amusements was finally lifted by General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church here af-voted to adopt the majority report church.Methodists will in the future be required to refrain from "such diversions as cannot be used in the name of Jesus Christ." The report scored improper attendance at immoral, questionable and misleading theatrical or motion picture performances.

Expulsion from the church will be

"THE LAST HOUR"

AT THE MAJESTIC

Sir Conan Doyle and Oliver Lodge, to cite the most notable who have accepted the theory of spirit manifestations in this life, have brought one recurrent question to the fore of late:
What are the thoughts of the condemned man or woman on the threshold of death, what visions that are forever closed to us in this life pass in panorama during this the last hour of their earthly existence.
Will this question remain foreverun-solved in wrestling the truth
from the mysteries which enshroud it? Or perhaps it is not the function of science at all—but belongs to a new line of discoverers who will rear a new line of thought and research of which Conan Doyle and Oliver Lodge are the forerunners?
Or is the whole matter merely a paw in the hands of dupes and fakers and a question which everynearest approach to this mystery is Faith?
Such questions are aroused vividly by reports of a new picture "The Last Hour" which has been shown in New York and which will be shown in the Majestic theatre tomorrow and Thursday. Critics who have reported on the picture have called it as great as "The Miracle"
It has nothing to do with an automaton moving to the scaffold and to each one of us separately.

UTENCO IRONERS

Before I bought mine, ironing was always my hardest job—my back wouldn't stand it. I had to rest half an hour after ironing half an hour. I never finished in one day, and at night I was simply dead. Now—with my Utenco—I sit on a comfortable chair, and REST AS I IRON, and it

KREMER WILL FACE

G. C. ALEXANDER
TODAY IN CUBLAND

Bill McKechie and his Buccaneers passed through Pittsburgh late last night on their way from Altoona to Chicago where they are billed to begin a three-day engagement this afternoon with the Cubs. While the Pirates were jubilant over their journey to Brooklyn for a Sunday game in which they broke their losing streak, they did not relish the fact that they had slipped down into seventh place.

Pittsburgh thus must put up a stiff battle in the three games at Chicago in the hope of regaining some of the lost ground. The Cubs, with Charley Hollocher in the lineup, are playing a better brand of ball than they were delivering prior to the return of their prodigal little shortstop. Accordingly, the next three afternoons promise plenty of hardfought ball for the Buccies.

Ray Kremer who whitewashed the Cubs and let them down with two hits three weeks ago today at Forbes Field will be sent against them this afternoon on their own lot. He will be opposed by Grover Cleveland Alexander who has been hurling in his usual sensational manner since the beginning of the season. Alex the Great was charged with a defeat on April 21 at Cincinnati. Since then he has chalked up five consecutive victories, including one over the Pirates in Chicago which was won in the eleventh by the close score of 2 to 1.

THE SLUGGERS

WIN THEIR FIRST VICTORY

The Tierney Sluggers began their season with a victory by defeating the Knights of Nine. The score was 11-2.

Batteries: Tierney Sluggers, Peter Rock and Theodore Rock; Knights of Nine, John Pogoda and Red Wilson. A return contest between the clubs will be played at the local ball park on Thursday, May 29, at 5:30 o'clock.

Observations of Oldest Inhabitant.

One reason why the fools who used to drive horses instead of cars had so few accidents was because the horses at least had some sense. A car hasn't any more than the driver.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Yes, Indeed.

"I see the helicopter which cost the builder $225,000 to build has lifted him 20 feet into the air." "But that's too expensive a way to get upstairs to ever become popular."—Houston Chronicle.

Platinum Once Thrown Into Ocean.

The Spanish government at one time forbade the export of platinum from South America, and ordered it thrown into the sea to prevent its use as an adulterant for gold.

Negro Wisdom.

"Some of de gloomy talk yo' hear," observed Uncle Wm. "Am caused by de fact dat it's easier to talk hard times den it is to do hard work."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Peculiar Idea of Card Playing.

In olden times card playing was regarded as essentially a Christian pastime, and a statute of Henry VII forbade card playing save during the Christmas holidays.

BASEBALL LID

TO BE PRIED
OPEN TOMORROW

The Charlevoi Independents with the assistance of the Richard Kellys of Pittsburgh will pry open the baseball lid in Charlevoi tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 o'clock standard time.

The grounds were visited yesterday afternoon by Manager D. Cleve Mathers and George W. Might, one of the directors of the club, and were pronounced in first class condition. The rain of this morning may, or may not, preclude the contest, but Manager Mathers and Director Might, with the fans, trust that after a month's waiting, Jupiter Pluvius will allow the season to be opened tomorrow on the home grounds.

This year is probably the latest for the opening of a baseball season in the history of the borough.

JACK ZIVIC BEATS

RAY MITCHELL IN BOUT LAST NIGHT

They sometimes come back. And today, Jack Zivic, the little amateur, who four years ago was an Olympic champion, is again in the running for a shot at the lightweight title this summer. Jack took his aspirations out of hock last night by scoring a clean-cut, yet unimpressive victory over Ray Mitchell, the tough Philadelphia Italian, who a few weeks ago moved Jack out of the title row. Zivic won almost in as easy fashion as Mitchell did the last time they went to the barrier and now today his manager, Jimmy Bronson will appear before the New York commission and insist that the Lawrenceville kid be given a shot at Louis Vincentini or any other of the runner-ups looking for a chance to upset Benny Leonard. Zivic took eight of the 10 rounds, one was even and Mitchell had the other one the fourth, but only twice were there flashes of the sort of milling which marked the encounter of several weeks ago.

Sitting at the ringside last night, kidding the writers, shouting advice to the prelim kids, and then settling down and watching every move of Jack Zivic, "Red" Mason, after the fight last night, let it be known that he is willing to have Cuddy DeMarco try his luck against the Lawrenceville kid. "I'll let Zivic do 137 1-2 ringside and DeMarco will not go over 132, and be ready to bet plenty that Cuddy can beat him, says the mute Mason after the fight. "If Zivic wants the match he can have it under those conditions."

When approached about it, Jimmy Bronson laughed a couple of loud laughs, and wanted to know when Mason "even though he has been in the fighting business longer than anyone I know, has been privileged to set a new scale of weight of any fighters. Jack is a lightweight and will make 135 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon for DeMarco. That is legitimate weight and if Mason wants the match he can have it without much argument. Jack made 135 1-4 tonight and he can take off four ounces to give Pittsburgh the fight it really wants and should have. I'm ready. Get Mason."

Rat Fleas

Although plague is spread by the bite of rat fleas that have formerly feasted on the blood of a plague-infected person or animal, not every species of flea performs this office. It has been found that one species of rat flea is apparently responsible for most of the outbreaks of pestilence, at least in India where it is endemic. The geographical distribution of the disease varies with that of the flea. Xenopsylla cheopis, while other species of rat fleas predominate where plague is uncommon.

Origin of Photography

Photography has made such rapid strides in 50 years that it is almost incredible that one of the first and earliest processes in the development of photography was the daguerreotype. Invented by L. M. Daguerre of Paris and first publicly used in 1839. The lights and shadows of a landscape or figure were fixed on a metallic plate by the action of actinic light rays.

Mozart's Burial

Mozart died of malignant typhoid. The funeral service was held in the open air, as was the custom with the poorest class. The strictest economy was observed in the funeral arrangements. Mozart was buried in a common pauper's grave, the site of which was soon forgotten. Vienna erected on the probable spot a handsome monument.
